 No

Rule Summary

6. Summary of the rule or change:

The requirement for utilities to use symbols to identify tariff changes is replaced with the requirement to provide marked-up versions of the tariff indicating changes as part of an advice letter filing. The marked-up version of the proposed revised tariff sheet shall indicate deleted text by strike-through and additional text by underline. Utilities with public websites shall provide access to a searchable copy of the utility's presently effective tariff. There will be no formal comment period for this change of the rule. (DAR NOTE: This change in proposed rule has been filed to make additional changes to a proposed amendment that was published in the April 15, 2013, issue of the Utah State Bulletin, on page 38. Underlining in the rule below indicates text that has been added since the publication of the proposed rule mentioned above; strike-out indicates text that has been deleted. You must view the change in proposed rule and the proposed amendment together to understand all of the changes that will be enforceable should the agency make this rule effective.)

Aggregate Cost Information

7. Aggregate anticipated cost or savings to:

A) State budget:

Affected: No

This filing codifies practices that exist for tariff filings, and should not impact the operations of any state agencies.
