Re: Docket No. 10-035-T03

On February 23, 2010, Rocky Mountain Power (“Company”) filed Tariff Advice No. 10-03 requesting to increase the annual cap on self direction credits available through the Self Direction Credit program. Attachment A of that filing contained an erroneous reference to “residential insulation measures” in the Results section of the document which should have read “the self direction program.” Rocky Mountain Power provides herein Attachment A with the erroneous reference corrected. The Company has reviewed the cost effectiveness results in the original Attachment A and has determined that the analysis contained therein is accurate.

Informal inquiries may be directed to Dave Taylor, manager of Utah regulatory affairs, at (801) 220-2923.

Sincerely,

Jeffrey K. Larsen
Vice President, Regulation
