1st Revised Response to EBA Filing Requirement 1

Further to the Company's response to EBA Filing Requirement 1 dated March 15, 2012, the Company states as follows:

It has come to the Company's attention that Confidential Attachment EBA FR 1 - 1 contained some extraneous gas physical data not relevant to the deferral period in this proceeding. The Company therefore resubmits a corrected version of Confidential Attachment EBA FR 1 -1 to replace, in its entirety, the original version of Confidential Attachment EBA FR 1 -1 previously provided.

Confidential information is provided subject to Utah PSC Rule 746-100-16.
