

Net - zero metering

1 message

Donald Davies <donaIdgdavies@gmail.com>

Mon, Jul 28, 2014 at 4:13 PM

To: psc@utah.gov

I understand the PUC will review

Solar panels provide power during the day, when the generation costs are higher.

Solar panels actually decrease loading on power distribution systems during the day, which is the heavy load time.

Solar panels generate the most at 2:00 pm, corresponding to the hottest time for air conditioning.

Given the benefits those with solar panels are providing to Rocky Mountain Power. I believe the charge for being connected should be near zero.