Docket No. 19-035-T06

OFFER OF ALL FILED EVIDENCE

Rocky Mountain Power, a division of PacifiCorp, (“Rocky Mountain Power” or “Company”), hereby requests the Public Service Commission of Utah (“Commission”) to admit all pre-filed evidence in the above-captioned proceeding and to, assuming the Commission has no questions for the witnesses, cancel the hearing currently scheduled for July 2, 2019. The Company, collectively with the Division of Public Utilities and the Office of Consumer Services, shall hereinafter be referred to as “the Filing Parties.”

The Company has been authorized to represent that the Filing Parties have conferred and agree to waive cross examination of witnesses at the scheduled hearing. As a result, the parties are willing to forego the hearing altogether unless the Commission has questions for any of the witnesses. The Filing Parties will make their witnesses available either in person or by telephone if the Commission desires to ask questions of any witnesses. If the Commission has no questions for any of the witnesses, the Filing Parties request that the Commission cancel the hearing.

At this time, the Filing Parties offer all testimony and exhibits filed in this docket, and ask that the Commission admit them to the official record of this proceeding, and consider the Company's application based on the evidence in the record.

DATED this 26th day of June, 2019.

Respectfully submitted,

Daniel E. Solander

Attorney for Rocky Mountain Power
