ISSUED: June 24, 2009

By The Commission:

This matter is before us on Questar Gas Company's (Company or Questar) Motion to extend the term of the Conservation Enabling Tariff and Demand-Side Management Pilot Program (collectively Program) until December 31, 2010. We previously ordered the Program extended until December 2009 in March 2009.

Questar filed a second Motion on May 19, 2009 requesting that we extend the Program until December 31, 2010. The Company represented to us that neither the Division of Public Utilities (Division) nor the Office of Consumer Services (OCS) opposed the Motion. The Company requests the extension because it expects a report from the Cadmus Group providing an analysis of the Program processes, design, and deemed savings, which is not due until June 2010. Questar represents that the completed report will "enable Questar Gas and the other stakeholders to have full and complete information that will enable them to determine whether the DSM programs' benefits justify their [permanent] continuance," Questar Motion, p.3. Questar represents that it plans to file for approval of the Program on a permanent basis in 2010, either in a separate program filing or in a general rate case.

Based on the representations of the Company, there being no opposition to the extension, and the extension not against the public interest, we order as follows:

ORDER

1. The Motion seeking extension of the Conservation Enabling Tariff (CET) and Demand-Side Management (DSM) Pilot Program until December 31, 2010 is granted and the programs shall be extended until that date;
2. Pursuant to Utah Code § 63G-4-301 and 54-7-15, an aggrieved party may request agency review or rehearing of this Order by filing a written request for review or rehearing with the Commission within 30 days after the issuance of the Order. Responses to a request for agency review or rehearing must be filed within 15 days of the filing of the request for review or rehearing. If the Commission does not grant a request for review or rehearing within 20 days after the filing of a request for review or rehearing, it is deemed denied. Judicial review of the Commission's final agency action may be obtained by filing a petition for review with the Utah Supreme Court within 30 days after final agency action. Any petition for review must comply with the requirements of Utah Code §§ 63G-4-401, 63G-4-403, and the Utah Rules of Appellate Procedure.
