

Qualifications of Diane Leopold

President–Dominion Energy

Diane Leopold is president–Dominion Energy, which serves more than 1.3 million customer accounts in Ohio and West Virginia and also includes Dominion Transmission, Inc. and Cove Point LNG. Dominion Transmission Inc. operates one of the largest underground storage complexes in the world. Since joining the company in 1995, she has held various operating, project management, commercial and financial management roles in several business units.

Recent positions include senior vice president–Business Development & Generation Construction and senior vice president–Dominion Transmission. She assumed her current post in January 2014.

Leopold serves as president of the board of trustees of the Virginia Commonwealth University Foundation. She also is a member of the boards of directors of the Interstate Natural Gas Association of America and the American Gas Association.

She graduated from the University of Sussex in the United Kingdom in 1989 with a bachelor’s degree in mechanical and electrical engineering. She received a master’s degree in electrical engineering (energy conversion, power and transmission) in 1993 from George Washington University and an MBA in 1998 from Virginia Commonwealth University.