

Qualifications of Fred G. Wood, III

Senior Vice President - Financial Management, Energy Infrastructure Group

Fred G. Wood, III is senior vice president-Financial Management, Energy Infrastructure Group, which includes the Dominion Energy and Dominion Virginia Power business units.

Since joining Dominion in 1985, he has held numerous financial management positions across Dominion and its subsidiaries. Wood served as vice president, treasurer and chief financial officer of Dominion Energy from 1998 to 2000, senior vice president-Financial Management, Dominion Exploration & Production from 2000 to 2004, and senior vice president-Financial Management, Dominion Generation from 2004 through 2013. He assumed his current post in January 2014.

Wood currently serves on the board of directors of the School of the Performing Arts in the Richmond Community, or SPARC, and previously served on the Business Partner's board of the College of William & Mary's Mason School of Business.

He received a bachelor's degree in economics from the College of William & Mary in 1985 and a master's degree in economics from Virginia Commonwealth University in 1990.