ISSUED: October 13, 2011

SYNOPSIS

Cordia is granted approval to discontinue service to its Utah customers. Discontinuance may take effect on or after October 13, 2011.

By The Commission:

On August 9, 2011, Cordia Communications Corporation (“Cordia”) filed an application to discontinue telecommunications service to its Utah customers on October 13, 2011. An application to discontinue service is governed by Utah Administrative Code R746-350. Pursuant to the Commission’s request, the Division of Public Utilities (“Division”) issued a memorandum on August 29, 2011, recommending conditional approval of Cordia’s application provided that 1) Cordia provide notice of its intent to discontinue service to its customers and, if there is any transition of customers, 2) Cordia continue to work with its customers to ensure that numbers are ported correctly. On September 23, 2011, the Commission issued an order requiring Cordia to comply with the provisions recommended in the Division’s memorandum, and also added a third requirement requiring Cordia to provide an affidavit, signed by its officer or principal attesting under penalty of perjury to the truth, accuracy, and correctness of the application. Since the Commission issued its order, Cordia has submitted all the information requested or has otherwise complied with the Commission's order.

Based on a review of Cordia's application, the Division's memorandum, and Cordia's communications with the Commission since September 23, 2011, the Commission concludes to grant Cordia's application. Accordingly, the Commission finds that Cordia has complied with Utah Admin. Code R746-350 and has provided appropriate notice to its customers to allow service to cease on the proposed date of October 13, 2011.

Wherefore, the Commission enters the following ORDER:

1. Cordia's application to discontinue service to its Utah customers is granted.
2. Cordia may discontinue its phone service to Utah customers on or after October 13, 2011.

DATED at Salt Lake City, Utah, this 13th day of October, 2011.
