The Senate passed the measure last week. The 237-187 House vote Thursday that sent the bill to the president split along party lines as Democrats praised the measure for creating a $30 billion federal fund to help smaller banks issue loans to small new loan fund is just a smaller version of the unpopular 2008 bailout of the financial system.

"What we have today before us is junior TARP," said Rep. Lincoln Diaz-Balart, R-Fla.

While community bankers enthusiastically support the measure, it is getting only tepid support from GOP-leaning small-business groups, which

Sprint Presents Lifeline and Link Up Service

Lifeline and Link Up are public assistance programs offering wireless telephone discounts to qualified, low-income consumers. Under the Lifeline program, eligible subscribers may receive a discounted monthly charge of $16.49 per month in most areas. Eligible residents of federally recognized Tribal lands may qualify to receive additional discounts off the monthly charge for Lifeline service. Link Up assistance helps qualified, low-income customers pay the activation fee.

Eligibility requirements vary by state. In many states, you may qualify for Lifeline assistance if you comply with certain income level requirements or you currently participate in certain public assistance programs.

For further information about Lifeline and Link Up assistance or to receive an application form, please call Sprint toll free at 866-827-3290.

NOTICE: Lifeline is only available to Sprint subscribers in limited geographic areas, and for one wireline or wireless phone line per household. You may only receive the Link Up discount once at the same address. Additional restrictions apply. ©2010 Sprint Nextel. All rights reserved.
