

As with the suspension process, you may contest the proposed debarment or its scope by filing arguments and any relevant documentation within thirty (30) calendar days of receipt of this letter or its publication in the Federal Register, whichever occurs first.²³ The Bureau, in the absence of extraordinary circumstances, will notify you of its decision to debar within ninety (90) calendar days of receiving any information it may have filed.²⁴ If the Bureau decides to debar the you, its decision will become effective upon either your receipt of a debarment notice or publication of the decision in the Federal Register, whichever occurs first.²⁵

If and when your debarment becomes effective, you will be prohibited from participating in activities associated with or related to all federal universal service support mechanisms, including the Lifeline program for at least three years from the date of debarment.²⁶ The Bureau may set a longer debarment period or extend an existing debarment period if necessary to protect the public interest.²⁷ Pursuant to the Commission's rules, should you choose to contest the scope or length of any such debarment, you must file arguments and any relevant documentation within thirty (30) calendar days of receipt of notice or publication in the Federal Register of such debarment, whichever is earlier.²⁸

III. Non-Compliance

In the 2012 Lifeline Order, the Commission implemented a compliance plan requirement for any carrier that is seeking to become an ETC without offering service, at least in part, over its own facilities.²⁹ In its Lifeline compliance plan, a carrier must describe and adhere to certain protections designed to protect consumers and the Universal Service Fund.³⁰ The Lifeline compliance plan must: (1) outline the measures the carrier will take to comply with program rules, including requirements related to enrollment, submitting claims for reimbursement, materials related to certifications, and program integrity safeguards, and (2) provide a detailed description of how the carrier offers service, the geographic areas in which it offers service, and a description of the carrier's corporate structure and Lifeline service plan offerings.³¹ Q Link submitted a Lifeline compliance plan to receive forbearance from the statute's facilities requirement, and that Lifeline compliance plan was approved on August 8, 2012.³²

Following an investigation led by the Department of Justice, on October 14, 2024, Q Link pleaded guilty to conspiring to defraud and commit related offenses in connection with a scheme involving the Lifeline program which indicates Q Link has violated and is not in compliance with the terms of its compliance plan. The Commission is also aware [REDACTED]

Corporate operations related to the control of an ETC are material aspects of a Lifeline compliance plan.³³ As such, any change to the control of a non-facilities-based ETC without prior approval from the Wireline Competition Bureau is a violation of the Lifeline compliance plan requirement.³⁴

Re: Notice of suspension and initiation of debarment proceeding File No. EB–IHD–24–00037461

Dear Messrs. Asad, Nakahata, and Feder:

The Enforcement Bureau (Bureau) of the Federal Communications Commission (Commission or FCC) has received notice of the conviction of Q Link Wireless, LLC (Q Link or Company) for conspiring to commit offenses against the United States, specifically, (a) wire fraud, (b) theft of government funds, and (c) defrauding the United States, in violation of 18 U.S.C. 1343, 641, and 371, respectively, all in connection with fraudulent claims against the federal Lifeline program (Lifeline program).¹ The conspiracy involved submitting and causing to be submitted “false and fraudulent claims to the FCC Lifeline program for [Q Link] customers who were not using their cellphones according to the FCC usage rules.”² Consequently, pursuant to 47 CFR 54.8(e)(1), this letter constitutes official notice of Q Link’s suspension from the Lifeline program and all federal universal service support mechanisms as set forth below.³

Effective immediately upon receipt of this letter, Q Link is prohibited from participating in or receiving any benefit associated with the Lifeline program as well as any other program funded by federal universal service support mechanisms.

The Bureau hereby is also commencing a proceeding to debar Q Link from future participation in all federal universal support mechanisms.⁴ The Commission is required by its rules to debar Q Link “absent extraordinary circumstances,” notwithstanding any criminal process to which Q Link is subject.⁵

I. Notice of Suspension

Any corporation that has “defrauded the government or engaged in similar acts through activities associated with or related to the [Lifeline program]” may be prohibited from receiving the benefits associated with that program.⁶ The Lifeline program is a government program that provides support to eligible telecommunications carriers (ETCs) that in turn offer discounts on telephone and broadband service for eligible low-income consumers.⁷ An ETC may receive reimbursement in connection with the Lifeline program only if it certifies as part of its reimbursement request that it is in compliance with the Lifeline rules.⁸

Q Link has participated in the Lifeline program since 2012. On October 15, 2024, Q Link pleaded guilty to “conspiring to defraud and commit offenses against the United States in connection with a years-long scheme to steal over $100 million from a celebrated federal program providing discounted phone service to people in need.”⁹ Q Link’s misleading practices, deceptive call activity, falsified documents and threatening customer service scripts coerced customers into accepting Lifeline services and agreeing to remain its customers.¹⁰ Q Link knew that the Lifeline usage requirements required it to disenroll and stop seeking reimbursement for customers who had not used their cellphones in a 45-day window (90-day window for 2016), yet it continued to bill the Lifeline program for Q Link customers that were no longer eligible because they were not using, and in some instances, no longer even had their cellphones.¹¹ Between 2013 and 2019, Q Link received $618,736,494 from the Lifeline program.¹² Approximately 21 percent of Q Link’s payments during this period were due to its fraudulent scheme.¹³

Pursuant to Section 54.8(b) of the Commission’s rules,¹⁴ Q Link’s conviction requires the Bureau to suspend it, absent extraordinary circumstances, from: (a) participating in any activities associated with or related to the Lifeline program, including receiving funds or discounted services through the Lifeline program, or consulting with, assisting, or advising applicants or service providers regarding the Lifeline program; and (b) participating in any activities associated with or related to all federal universal service support mechanisms.¹⁵ Q Link’s suspension becomes effective upon either (i) its receipt of this letter, or (ii) publication of the suspension in the Federal Register, whichever occurs first.¹⁶

In accordance with the Commission’s suspension and debarment rules, Q Link may contest this suspension or its scope by filing arguments, with any relevant documents, within thirty (30) calendar days of its receipt of this letter or publication of the suspension in the Federal Register, whichever occurs first.¹⁷ Such requests, however, will not ordinarily be granted.¹⁸ The Bureau may reverse or further limit the scope of a suspension only upon a finding of extraordinary circumstances.¹⁹ The Bureau will decide any request to reverse or modify a suspension within ninety (90) calendar days of its receipt of such request.²⁰

II. Initiation of Debarment Proceedings

In addition to Q Link's immediate suspension from all universal service support mechanisms as described above, including the Lifeline program, its conviction is cause for debarment as defined in Section 54.8(c) of the Commission's rules.²¹ Therefore, pursuant to Section 54.8(b) of the Commission's rules, Q Link's conviction requires the Bureau to commence debarment proceedings against it.²²

As with the suspension process, Q Link may contest the proposed debarment or its scope by filing arguments and any relevant documentation within thirty (30) calendar days of receipt of this letter or its publication in the Federal Register, whichever occurs first.²³ The Bureau, in the absence of extraordinary circumstances, will notify Q Link of its decision to debar within ninety (90) calendar days of receiving any information it may have filed.²⁴ If the Bureau decides to debar the Company, its decision will become effective upon either Q Link's receipt of a debarment notice or publication of the decision in the Federal Register, whichever occurs first.²⁵

If and when Q Link's debarment becomes effective, it will be prohibited from participating in activities associated with or related to all federal universal service support mechanisms, including the Lifeline program, for at least three years from the date of debarment.²⁶ The Bureau may set a longer debarment period or extend an existing debarment period if necessary to protect the public interest.²⁷ Pursuant to the Commission's rules, should Q Link choose to contest the scope or length of any such debarment, it must file arguments and any relevant documentation within thirty (30) calendar days of receipt of notice or publication in the Federal Register of such debarment, whichever is earlier.²⁸

²¹ "Causes for suspension and debarment are conviction of or civil judgment for attempt or commission of criminal fraud, theft, embezzlement, forgery, bribery, falsification or destruction of records, making false statements, receiving stolen property, making false claims, obstruction of justice and other fraud or criminal offense arising out of activities associated with or related to the schools and libraries support mechanism, the high-cost support mechanism, the rural healthcare support mechanism, and the low-income support mechanism." Id. § 54.8(c). Associated activities "include the receipt of funds or discounted services through [the federal universal service] support mechanisms, or consulting with, assisting, or advising applicants or service providers regarding [the federal universal service] support mechanisms." Id. § 54.8(a)(1).

²² Id. § 54.8(b), (e)(1).

²³ Id. § 54.8(e)(3).

²⁴ Id. § 54.8(e)(5).

²⁵ Id. The Commission may reverse a debarment, or may limit the scope or period of debarment, upon a finding of extraordinary circumstances, following the filing of a petition by you or an interested party or upon motion by the Commission. Id. § 54.8(f).

²⁶ Id. § 54.8(d), (g). We note that under the Plea Agreement Q Link shall not participate, directly or indirectly, in any program administered by the FCC as of the time of sentencing currently scheduled for January 15, 2025. Plea Agreement, supra note 1, at para. 8.

²⁷ 47 CFR 54.8(g).

²⁸ Id. § 54.8(e)(4).

III. Non-Compliance

In the 2012 Lifeline Order, the Commission implemented a compliance plan requirement for any carrier that is seeking to become an ETC without offering service, at least in part, over its own facilities.²⁹ In its Lifeline compliance plan, a carrier must describe and adhere to certain protections designed to protect consumers and the Universal Service Fund.³⁰ The Lifeline compliance plan must: (1) outline the measures the carrier will take to comply with program rules, including requirements related to enrollment, submitting claims for reimbursement, materials related to certifications, and program integrity safeguards, and (2) provide a detailed description of how the carrier offers service, the geographic areas in which it offers service, and a description of the carrier's corporate structure and Lifeline service plan offerings.³¹ Q Link submitted a Lifeline compliance plan to receive forbearance from the statute's facilities requirement, and that Lifeline compliance plan was approved on August 8, 2012.³²

Following an investigation led by the Department of Justice, on October 14, 2024, Q Link pleaded guilty to conspiring to defraud and commit related offenses in connection with a scheme involving the Lifeline program. The Commission is also aware that [REDACTED]

Corporate operations related to the control of an ETC are material aspects of a Lifeline compliance plan.³³ As such, any change to the control of a non-facilities-based ETC without prior approval from the Wireline Competition Bureau is a violation of the Lifeline compliance plan requirement.³⁴ Given these concerns and Q Link's recent criminal plea, Q Link is not in compliance with the terms of its approved Lifeline compliance plan.
