Cricket Lifeline Application

Cricket Lifeline Credit – (State)

Lifeline is a government assistance program that grants eligible individuals a credit each month on their phone bill. You may qualify for a $10.00 credit on your monthly wireless bill if you receive low income benefits under certain programs and/or if your total household income is below 135% of the federal poverty guidelines. You must have (or sign-up for) Cricket Wireless service to receive this credit. The Cricket Lifeline Credit is only available for Cricket Wireless service; it is not available for Cricket Broadband or Cricket PAYGo service.

If you are a resident of (state), you may qualify for the Cricket Lifeline Credit by one of two methods. Method 1 is program-based; if you or another person in your household is enrolled in at least one of the public assistance programs listed below, you may qualify. Method 2 is income-based; you may also qualify if your household’s total gross income is at or below the income limits listed below. You must provide documentation verifying participation in at least one of the programs listed below or provide documentation verifying your household income. Bring this application and your documentation to a Cricket Corporate-Owned Store or Exclusive Cricket Dealer. To locate the store nearest you, visit www.mycricket.com/locations.
