REGULAR EXTRA LISTINGS

Residence extra listings may be the same names of members of the customer's family or of other persons residing in the customer's household. Household is defined in Section I, General Rules and Regulations.

Ordinarily, all extra listings must be of the same address and telephone number as the primary listing, except as provided for alternate listings. However, when in the opinion of the Telephone Company it appears necessary as an aid to the use of the directory and provided satisfactory service can be furnished, a listing may be permitted under the address of a PBX station or extension station, installed on premises of the customer (except at a residence); but an address different from that of the switchboard, or main station, using the telephone number of the primary listing.

In connection with Private Branch Exchange service at hotels, motels, and apartment houses, resident extra listings at business extra listings rates may be provided in the name of permanent guests or tenants at that location, provided approval is obtained of the hotel, motel, or apartment house involved. However, no separate billing will be issued for these instances.

At the option of the customer extra listings may be obtained upon the issuance of a directory or between issues of directories at which time they appear on information records only. Charges for extra listings date from the time the listings are posted on information records.

NON-LISTING

A listing that is available in directory assistance but not printed in the telephone directory.

NONPUBLISHED SERVICE

The telephone number of nonpublished service is not listed in the telephone directory or in the information records available to the general public. Incoming calls to nonpublished service will be completed only when the calling party places the call by telephone number. The Telephone Company will adhere to this regulation notwithstanding any claim made by the calling party.

No liability for damages arising from publishing the telephone number of nonpublished service in the telephone directory or disclosing of nonpublished telephone numbers to any person shall attach to the Telephone Company. Where such number is published in the telephone directory, the Telephone Company's liability shall be limited to a refund or any monthly charges assessed by the Telephone Company for the nonpublished service. The subscriber indemnifies and saves the Telephone Company harmless against any and all claims for damages caused or claimed to have been caused directly, or indirectly, by refusing to disclose a nonpublished telephone number upon request or by the publication of the number of a nonpublished service in the telephone directory or disclosing of such number to any person.
