Rule Summary

6. Summary of the rule or change:

Section 2(a)(i) was added to clarify landlines would be eligible to receive Lifeline subsidies.

Aggregate Cost Information

7. Aggregate anticipated cost or savings to:

A) State budget:

Affected: No

This minor amendment to a recently enacted rule should have no impact on state budget. The amendment merely confirms the existing, established regulatory practice of allowing landline based service providers to receive subsidies under state Lifeline programs. Landline carriers have long been eligible for the subsidy. When the rule was recently updated, the new text created ambiguity as to whether Landline carries would continue to be eligible. This amendment clarifies the ambiguity.

B) Local government:

Affected: No

This minor amendment to a recently enacted rule should have no impact on local government. The amendment merely confirms the existing, established regulatory practice of allowing landline based service providers to receive subsidies under state Lifeline programs. Landline carriers have long been eligible for the subsidy. When the rule was recently updated, the new text created ambiguity as to whether Landline carries would continue to be eligible. This amendment clarifies the ambiguity.

C) Small businesses:

Affected: No

("small business" means a business employing fewer than 50 persons)

This minor amendment to a recently enacted rule should have no impact on small business. The amendment merely confirms the existing, established regulatory practice of allowing landline based service providers to receive subsidies under state Lifeline programs. Landline carriers have long been eligible for the subsidy. When the rule was recently updated, the new text created ambiguity as to whether Landline carries would continue to be eligible. This amendment clarifies the ambiguity.

D) Persons other than small businesses, businesses, or local government entities:

Affected: No

("person" means any individual, partnership, corporation, association, governmental entity, or public or private organization of any character other than an agency)

This minor amendment to a recently enacted rule should have no impact on business. The amendment merely confirms the existing, established regulatory practice of allowing landline based service providers to receive subsidies under state Lifeline programs. Landline carriers have long been eligible for the subsidy. When the rule was recently updated, the new text created ambiguity as to whether Landline carries would continue to be eligible. This amendment clarifies the ambiguity.

Compliance Cost Information

8. Compliance costs for affected persons:

This minor amendment to a recently enacted rule should have no impact on affected persons. The amendment merely confirms the existing, established regulatory practice of allowing landline based service providers to receive subsidies under state Lifeline programs. Landline carriers have long been eligible for the subsidy. When the rule was recently updated, the new text created ambiguity as to whether Landline carries would continue to be eligible. This amendment clarifies the ambiguity.
