delivery by noon on the day of service. If the data requests are served on the party to respond after noon, then the turnaround begins on the next business day.

3. The participants shall, if possible, serve all filings by electronic mail. If any party does not have an electronic mail address or is unable to send documents by electronic mail, service shall, if possible, be by facsimile. If a party has neither an electronic mail address nor a facsimile number or a party is unable to serve documents by electronic mail or facsimile, documents shall be served by hand delivery or overnight courier at the discretion of the serving party. It is understood that attachments or exhibits that are either not available electronically or and which are too bulky to be served by electronic mail or facsimile will be either hand-delivered or sent by overnight courier to parties who would otherwise be entitled to receive service of them by electronic mail or facsimile. With the exception of the filing deadlines for rebuttal and surrebuttal testimony indicated above, participants shall serve their filings by the means specified in this paragraph by no later than the close of business (5 p.m.) on the due dates specified above.

4. In compliance with the Americans with Disabilities Act, individuals needing special accommodations (including auxiliary communicative aids and services) during this hearing should notify the Commission, at 160 East 300 South, Salt Lake City, Utah, 84111, (801) 530-6716, at least three working days prior to the hearing.
