The Division recommends that the Commission not acknowledge the study as satisfying the Commitment. On December 5, 2007, Pacificorp responded to the critique, arguing that it has met the Commitment.

The Commission requests interested persons to submit comments on the Arrearage Study and comments previously filed by the Salt Lake Action Program, the Division of Public Utilities and Pacificorp, to assist the Commission in determining whether the arrearage study meets the Commitment and what further actions, if any, should be taken by the Commission.
