)

ISSUED: October 12, 2010

By The Commission:

The Division of Public Utilities notified the Commission that the parties are attempting to reach an agreement. The Division recommended the Commission vacate the standing scheduling order to allow further negotiations.

The Commission finds that the scheduling order should be vacated to allow the parties to continue negotiations. The standing scheduling order and all notices are vacated. The Division shall, within 60 days of this Order, provide a status update to the Commission on the parties' negotiations.

DATED at Salt Lake City, Utah, this 12th day of October, 2010.
