Re: Reply Comments Advice No. 14-08, Docket No. 14-035-T09
Tariff Schedule 117 – Residential Refrigerator Recycling Program

On July 22, 2014 the Public Service Commission (“Commission”) issued a notice of filing and comment period in the Matter of Rocky Mountain Power’s Proposed Revisions to Electric Service Schedule No. 117, Residential Refrigerator Recycling Program. Rocky Mountain Power (“Company”) provides the following reply comments to address the comments received by the Commission from the Office of Consumer Services (“Office”) and the Division of Public Utilities (“Division”).

In the comments dated August 5, 2014 from the Office of Consumer Services, they provide the following recommendation, “The Office recommends that the Commission approve the proposed tariff changes with the Provisions of Service modified language as provided to the Office by the Company as follows:

1. Residential, commercial, and industrial customers will receive an incentive of $30 for each eligible refrigerator and/or freezer. Incentives will be available on a maximum of two qualifying appliances per qualifying participant per year. Qualifying third party entities or participants on a single account but with multiple residential dwellings such as an apartment complex, are eligible for incentives on a maximum of two qualifying appliances per dwelling until per year. The Company may offer a packet with written energy efficiency information and instant savings measures.
2. Participating retailers will receive an incentive of up to $20 for each eligible refrigerator and/or freezer. Retailers are required to sign and abide by the terms of participation agreements.”

In the comments dated August 5, 2014 from the Division, they provide the following recommendation, “The Division has reviewed the changes as proposed by the Company and the Office and recommends that the Commission approve the modifications to Electric Service Schedule 117.”

The Company recognizes the concern of the Office and has worked with the Office to refine the proposed tariff language. The Company accepts the changes to the language in the first and second bullet point included in the provisions of service section of the tariff that were proposed by the Office and agreed to by the Division. The Company has included updated tariff sheets 117.1 and 117.2 which include the language proposed by the Office.

An original and five copies are provided of the Company's reply.
