ISSUED: February 27, 2015

BACKGROUND AND PROCEDURAL HISTORY

On February 20, 2015, Kelly Margetts filed a formal complaint (“Complaint”) with the Public Service Commission of Utah (“Commission”) against Rocky Mountain Power and CenturyLink. In reviewing the Complaint, the Commission discovered that CenturyLink had neither been made aware of, nor had the opportunity to respond to the Complaint as part of the Division of Public Utilities (“Division”) informal complaint review process. To that end, the Commission is withholding consideration of the Complaint until CenturyLink has been informed and provided the opportunity to respond to the Complaint in the course of the Division’s informal complaint review process.

ORDER STAYING RESPONSE DEADLINES

The Commission stays, pending further direction of the Commission, any and all responsive pleading deadlines associated with the Complaint.
