RE: March 27, 2015, filing in Docket Nos. 15-035-19 and 15-049-04

Dear Mr. Margetts:

The Utah Public Service Commission received your March 27, 2015, filing in the above dockets. In reviewing your filing, it appears that neither Rocky Mountain Power nor CenturyLink is mentioned in the certificate of service attached to your filing.

Commission rule R746-100-3 requires that the certificate of service note "...a true and correct copy of the pleading was served upon each of the parties in the manner and on the date specified." Utah Admin. Code R746-100-3(D). The Commission will, therefore, hold your filing without further action until a certificate of service is filed showing the manner and date on which service of your filing was served on the parties, Rocky Mountain Power and CenturyLink.

Also, please note that to the extent your filing requests discovery of documents or things, such requests should not be filed with the Commission but must be addressed to the party from which the documents are requested. The same is true for requests for interrogatories (e.g., written questions to a party as a part of the discovery process). If you need further assistance, you may wish to contact legal counsel or the Utah State Bar lawyer referral service at 801-531-9077.

If you have any questions, please let me know. I can be reached at 801-530-6716.

Sincerely,

/s/ Gary L. Widerburg
Commission Secretary
