

UNSWORN DECLARATION UNDER PENALTY OF PERJURY

Based on my personal knowledge, I hereby state the following:

1. I personally mailed notices to all customers of Ticaboo Utility Improvement District notifying them of the August 29, 2013 public meeting at which the TUID board of trustees planned to adopt a system of standby fees and make other changes to the District's tariff. These notices were mailed at least 10 days in advance of the meeting.
2. The meeting notices for the August 29, 2013 meeting were mailed to all district customers simultaneously with the submission of the notice to the newspaper, which was before August 15, 2013.
3. TUID held a public meeting on August 29, 2013 and at that meeting the TUID board of trustees discussed and approved changes to the TUID tariff, including the implementation of a system of standby fees.
4. I personally mailed notices to all customers of Ticaboo Utility Improvement District notifying them of the January 15, 2015 public meeting at which the TUID board of trustees planned to adopt a variety of changes to the TUID tariff, including making landlords responsible for tenant account, and clarified the tap abandonment policy. These notices were mailed at least 10 days in advance of the meeting.
5. TUID held a public meeting on January 15, 2015 and at that meeting the TUID board of trustees discussed and approved changes to the TUID tariff.

I declare under criminal penalty of the State of Utah that the foregoing is true and correct.
