BEFORE THE PUBLIC SERVICE COMMISSION OF UTAH

APPLICATION OF ROCKY MOUNTAIN POWER TO ESTABLISH EXPORT CREDITS FOR CUSTOMER GENERATED ELECTRICITY	Docket No. 17-035-61 COMMENTS OF THE DIVISION OF PUBLIC UTILITIES
--	--

Pursuant to Utah Code Section 54-4a-1, the Division of Public Utilities (“Division”) files these Comments in response to the Public Service Commission of Utah’s (“Commission”) March 9, 2018 Notice and Request for Comments in this Docket. The Division will participate in both the oral arguments in Consumer Serv. v. Public Service Comm’n, Case No. 20170364 as well as the hearing on Phase I that are currently schedule in conflict. The Division believes that the scheduled oral argument date in Consumer Serv. v. Public Service Comm’n is likely to be rescheduled by motion of some parties. However, in the event that it is not rescheduled the Division will likely be able to accommodate both the hearing and oral arguments on the same day. The Division prefers not to overlap the two and would suggest that if the oral arguments are not rescheduled that the Phase I hearing be rescheduled to start at 1pm on April 17 and continue into the evening of that date if necessary.

However, if a party requests that the Phase I hearing be rescheduled for another date, the Division agrees with the Office of Consumer Service's request for a scheduling conference.

Submitted this 16th day of March 2018.
