DOCKET NO. 17-035-68
ORDER SUSPENDING DEADLINES FOR
WRITTEN TESTIMONY

ISSUED: April 16, 2018

On January 5, 2018, the Public Service Commission (“PSC”) issued its Scheduling Order and Notice of Hearing (“Scheduling Order”). The Scheduling Order requires parties to file written direct testimony on or before April 26, 2018. The Division of Public Utilities’ and Office of Consumer Services’ respective motions for summary judgment (“Motions”) are currently under consideration.

The PSC recognizes the outcome of the Motions may inform or, potentially, obviate the need for direct written testimony and concludes that preparation and filing of written testimony after the PSC issues orders on the Motions will better serve the parties and the record. Therefore, the PSC suspends all deadlines in the Scheduling Order concerning the filing of written testimony. The hearing date, June 18, 2018, is preserved for now. If the docket is not resolved through the Motions, the PSC will establish new deadlines for the filing of testimony after having ruled on the Motions. If the new filing deadlines necessitate the hearing’s postponement, it will be rescheduled.
