ISSUED: July 29, 2019

On January 28, 2019, Rocky Mountain Power (RMP) filed a request with the Public Service Commission (PSC) for an extension of its 2019 Integrated Resource Plan (“IRP”) filing deadline, from April 1, 2019 to August 1, 2019.¹ The PSC approved RMP’s January 28, 2019 request on March 12, 2019.² Subsequently, on July 16, 2019, RMP filed with the PSC a new request (“Request”) for extension of its IRP filing deadline from the previous revised date of August 1, 2019 to no later than October 18, 2019. RMP asserts an extension is needed due to a recently discovered modeling issue which will require RMP to re-run at least 50 cases, at approximately 10-12 cases per week, complete sensitivities, allow time for rescheduled public-input meetings, and to draft the IRP.

On July 17, 2019, the PSC issued a Notice and Request for Comments, establishing a comment deadline of July 25, 2019. The Division of Public Utilities and the Office of Consumer Services filed comments on July 22, 2019 and July 25, 2019, respectively, recommending the PSC approve the Request. The parties agree an extension is needed to ensure a thorough and accurate economic analysis.

¹ The PSC established a March 31 filing date for RMP’s IRP, (see In the Matter of the Acknowledgement of PacifiCorp’s Integrated Resource Plan, Report and Order at 57, issued April 1, 2010, Docket No. 09-2035-01). Because March 31, 2019 falls on a Sunday, the original filing date of the IRP this year is April 1, 2019, pursuant to Utah Code Ann. § 68-3-7.

Based on the parties' comments and recommendations, and there being no objection filed, the Request is approved.

- 1) The 2019 IRP filing deadline is extended from August 1, 2019 to no later than October 18, 2019. The PSC makes no change to the deadline for filing of future IRPs.
