QUALIFICATIONS

DEBORAH KAPILOFF

Experience: Western Resource Advocates, Clean Energy Program

Clean Energy Policy Advisor, June 2025 – present

My role is to provide quantitative and qualitative policy analysis, advocacy, and regulatory support for advancement of clean energy and transportation electrification in the Interior West.

Transportation Electrification Policy Advisor, June 2021 – June 2025

As a Transportation Electrification Policy Advisor, I developed and advocated for policies and mechanisms to promote transportation electrification and greenhouse gas emission reductions from the transportation sector. I represented WRA in regulatory and legislative policy forums and analyzed transportation electrification policies in order to understand their overall feasibility, emission reduction potential, and impact on the electricity grid.

Regional Markets Intern, Western Resource Advocates, Salt Lake City, UT
November 2020 – June 2021

As a Regional Markets intern, I wrote a policy paper detailing best practices for greenhouse accounting in the West. My paper was based on my research into how state climate goals can be accommodated in regional wholesale electricity markets through robust greenhouse gas accounting.

Research Intern, Zero Emission Resource Organization, Oslo, Norway
January – February 2020

In this role I researched European Union carbon markets' effects intersections with country and sector-specific emissions reductions goals, as well as assisted staff with research on various topics. Specifically, I worked with the city of Oslo on developing recommendations for the electrification of its ferry fleet.

Waste to Wealth Intern, Institute for Local Self-Reliance, Washington, D.C.
June 2019 – August 2019

My position with the Institute for Local Self-Reliance involved working with municipalities to develop waste reduction strategies. I also worked with environmental justice groups to create a mapping tool illustrating the effects of waste policy on low-income communities and communities of color.

Svoboda Legal Scholar, Mitchell Hamline School of Law, Saint Paul, MN
June 2018 – August 2018

As a Svoboda Legal Scholar, I assisted attorneys with clients seeking legal aid for a variety of issues, including notices of utility disconnection and eviction.

Education: Bachelor of Arts, Political Science and Environmental Studies, Concentration in Social Science, St. Olaf College, Northfield, MN, May 2020
