Re: South Utah Valley Electric Service District Proposed Tariff Revisions,
Docket No. 23-2167-T01

Dear Mr. Holdaway,

The Public Service Commission (PSC) reviewed tariff revisions filed February 10, 2023 by South Utah Valley Electric Service District (SESD) (“Tariff Revisions”). The Tariff Revisions include increases to SESD Electric Service Schedule Nos. 8 and 9, and new Electric Service Schedule Nos. 10, 11, and 12. SESD provided the required redlined versions of the Tariff Revisions on February 14, 2023 to the Division of Public Utilities (DPU).

The PSC also reviewed comments filed by the DPU on February 22, 2023. DPU comments that SESD notified customers of the Tariff Revisions, held a public meeting as required in Utah Code Ann. § 54-7-12(7), and that SESD’s Board approved the Tariff Revisions during a public hearing held December 28, 2022. DPU further comments that SESD did not provide the PSC notice of the Tariff Revisions 30 days before their effective dates in compliance with Utah Code Ann. § 54-3-3. Nevertheless, DPU comments that no significant or material harm to SESD’s members, the public, or SESD itself resulted from not following the 30-day notice requirement. Based on that reasoning, DPU recommends the PSC accept and acknowledge the Tariff Revisions for good cause, with an effective date of January 26, 2023.

Based on the PSC’s review of the Tariff Revisions, and on DPU’s comments and recommendations, the PSC finds that no significant or material harm to SESD’s members, the public, or SESD itself resulted from SESD’s failure to meet the 30-day notice requirement, and good cause therefore exists to acknowledge the Tariff Revisions. The PSC acknowledges the Tariff Revisions as complying with Utah Code Ann. § 54-7-12 and makes them available for public inspection.

Going forward, SESD should provide the PSC notice of any new or revised tariff schedule at least 30 days before its effective date to avoid any delays or additional administrative processes prior to PSC acknowledgment.

Sincerely,

/s/ Gary L. Widerburg
