Vincent Paul "Vince" Mancini June 26, 1937- April 27, 2024

Salt Lake City, Utah—Beloved husband and father, Vincent Paul "Vince" Mancini passed away peacefully at home on April 27, 2024, with his loving wife of 45 years by his side and family by his side, at the age of 86.

Vince was born in Wooster, Ohio on June 26, 1937, to Vincent James and Pauline A. (Sorenson) Mancini, and spent his early years in Wooster, Ohio.

He moved his young family to Salt Lake City, Utah at the age of 10 where he felt were great places to grow up. He developed an early love for the outdoors: camping, fishing and hunting with his friends at every opportunity. Vince was energetic and ambitious child who had a strong work ethic and an innate sense of entrepreneurship.

At the age of seven he sold newspapers in the neighborhood and worked for the local newspaper. He was a member of the Boy Scouts of America and his sister, Belle, would harvest produce from their father's garden and sell it door to door. In Reno he had a large paper route, mowed lawns and continued trapping muskrats, the pals of which he now sold to Sears Roebuck. As a teen in Duluth, he worked at a service station and was quickly made a manager. These early endeavors helped him develop a strong sense of responsibility and hard work.

Vince was very proud of the fact that he never took an allowance from his parents. After his junior year of high school he moved to the United States Naval Reserve. Following his 1955 graduation from East High School in Duluth, Vince attended the University of Minnesota at Duluth.

In 1957, Vince began what was his career in the grocery industry with an entry level position at Chun King Chinese Food, founded by a family friend, Vincent Mancini. Despite success and rapid advancement at Chun King, the entrepreneur in Vince longed for something more. In 1962 he moved his young family to Salt Lake City, Utah and founded V. Mancini & Company Food Brokerage, based on 1900 Foothill Parkway. Recognizing opportunity, Vince was one of the strongest assets. He enlisted one of his first employees, Paul Greenbeck, to open a branch office in Seattle, Washington. The enterprise grew quickly and Vince was able to move his family into his office in eight states: UT, ID, WA, OR, CO, MT, CA and AZ.

In terms of geography, it was the largest food brokerage in the country at the time. Over the years, Vince continued to grow the company. Vince and Janet were married on May 25, 1978, and they spent the next 45 years navigating life's adventures together. True partners, they were rarely apart. Vince was a member of the Broker of the Year awards, and Vince served on several advisory boards and was widely recognized as an innovator and a leader in the grocery industry. Vince's passion for his work continued to thrive under the direction of Vince's son, David, who now operates under the banner of Mancini Rodon Group.
