

Summer concerts

Continued from PREVIOUS PAGE

Friday, September 20 • Country duo Dan + Shay, with Jake Owen and Dylan Markow supporting.

Wednesday, September 25 • Hip-hop/R&B star Pitbull, with T-Pain opening.

Thursday, September 26 • Southern rock legends ZZ Top and Lynyrd Skynyrd.

Saturday, October 5 • Rock bands Breaking Benjamin and Staind co-headline, with support from Daughtry and Lakeview.

Friday-Saturday, October 11-12 • Arena-rock band Imagine Dragons.

Friday, October 18 • Electro-house musician Porter Robinson, with ericdoa opening.

Red Butte Garden

Red Butte Garden, 300 Wakara Way, Salt Lake City. For ticket information, go to redbuttegardens.org/concerts.

Tuesday, June 4 • Jamaican reggae musician Burning Spear and Australian singer-songwriter Xavier Rudd.

Thursday, June 13 • American jam band Umphrey's McGee will perform, with support from Nashville singer-songwriter Daniel Donato's Cosmic Country.

Monday, June 17 • Icelandic rockers KALEID, with pop-folk musician Vincent Lima opening.

Courtesy Red Butte Garden

Melissa Etheridge will co-headline with Jewel at Red Butte Garden on July 29.

Wednesday, June 19 • Folk-pop artist Mat Kearney will play, with support from "laid back grooves" artist Donavon Frankenreiter.

Wednesday, June 26 • American jam band The String Cheese Incident.

Sunday, July 7 • Blues-rock band Blues Traveler and Southern soul rock band JJ Grey & Mofro will co-headline.

Wednesday, July 10 • Country singer Lyle Lovett and His Large Band.

Sunday, July 14 • Rock band Portugal. The Man headlines; rock band Spoon Benders is opening.

Monday, July 15 • New Orleans rock band The Revivalists, with support from American folk band Hiss Golden Messenger.

Tuesday, July 16 • Slash presents the S.E.R.P.E.N.T. Festival, featuring Keb' Mo', Samantha Fish and Jackie Venson. This is a tour put together by the Guns N'Roses guitarist to celebrate the blues.

Tuesday, July 23 • Indie band Lake Street Drive, with support from R&B and soul singer Celisse.

Thursday, July 25 • Genre fusion artist Trombone Shorty & Orleans Avenue, with rapper Big Boi in support.

Monday, July 29 • American singer-songwriters Melissa Etheridge and Jewel will co-headline.

Wednesday, July 31 • Rock couple Pat Benatar & Neil Giraldo, with support from pop/soul/rock band The Vindys.

Monday, August 5 • Retro-rock band Stray Cats, with support from New Wave country band The Midnight Cowgirls.

Tuesday, August 6 • Americana and country singer-songwriter Charley Crockett.

Sunday, August 11 • Blues guitarist Gary Clark Jr.

Thursday, August 15 • "Progressive bluegrass" group Yonder Mountain String Band, American band Railroad Earth and jam band Leftover Salmon share the bill.

Friday, August 16 • Rock band O.A.R. headlines, with support from pop band Fitz and the Tantrums.

Sunday, August 18 • Legendary surf-rock band The Beach Boys.

Monday, August 19 • Blues, folk, country and rock artist Shakey Graves.

Tuesday, August 20 • Catalan band The Gipsy Kings featuring Nicolas Reyes.

Tuesday, August 27 • Genre-crossing band Pink Martini featuring China Forbes.

Thursday, September 5 • Los Angeles rock band The Airborne Toxic Event.

Sunday, September 8 • East Sussex alternative rock band KEANE.

Monday, September 9 • Cuban music group Buena Vista Social Orchestra.

Thursday, September 12 • Australian singer-songwriter Vance Joy headlines with support from Boston folk-pop group Tiny Habits.

Tuesday, September 17 • Folk-rock duo Indigo Girls and American singer-songwriter Amos Lee co-headline.

Wednesday, September 18 • Australian/New Zealand rock band Crowded House.

Tuesday, September 24 • Mexican acoustic guitar duo Rodrigo y Gabriela.

Granary Live

The outdoor venue in Salt Lake City's Granary district, at 742 S. 500 West.

Tuesday, June 18 • Alt-rock bands Mother and Cavetown co-headline with Destroy Boys opening.

— SUMMER CONCERTS, NEXT PAGE

Enjoy the Great Indoors.

San Francisco Design SFD

Phone: 415.645.7072
Salt Lake: 801.467.2701
www.sanfranciscodesign.com

R COPY