

UTAH PRIMARY » JUNE 25

Where they stand: Four Republicans seeking to fill Romney's Senate seat

John Curtis, Trent Staggs, Jason Walton and Brad Wilson on the primary ballot. Winner faces Democrat Caroline Gleich.

By BRYAN SCHOTT The Salt Lake Tribune

The Republican primary in Utah's race to replace Sen. Mitt Romney is crowded with a congressman, businessmen and a former lawmaker.

Candidates in the June 25 U.S. Senate primary election include: John Curtis, who's leaving his 3rd Congressional District seat run for the U.S. Senate; Trent Staggs, who was nominated by Utah GOP delegates for the race; Jason Walton, a businessman and entrepreneur; and Brad Wilson, the former Utah House speaker.

To better understand the candidates' positions on issues readers told The Salt Lake Tribune were important in this primary, a reporter asked each candidate the same question. The candidates' answers have been edited for grammar, clarity and length.

Photos by SENATE, AA

Clockwise from top left: John Curtis, Trent Staggs, Jason Walton and Brad Wilson are candidates for the GOP nomination for U.S. Senate.

PHOTOS BY TRENT NELSON The Salt Lake Tribune

TRUTH. EMPOWERMENT. COMMUNITY.

The Salt Lake Tribune

PULITZER PRIZE WINNER

URANIUM BOOMS AGAIN

Clean energy push sends miners back underground where mining took a heavy toll on prior generation.

Story by ANASTASIA HUFHAM
photos by TRENT NELSON
The Salt Lake Tribune

Please turn to Pages A8-9

Miners discuss operations deep inside the La Sal Mining Complex in eastern Utah.

INDEX

WEEK OF JUNE 9-15, 2024

Classified Ads	C10	Two Kids	D11
Comics	E1	Mountain Columns	C1
Editorials	B1	Obituaries	B7
Faith	A6-7	Puzzles	D6
Legal Notices	C10	Sports	C1
Look Ahead	A2	Weather	C12

8 60007 85200 8

JAZZ UNIFORMS ARE A NOD TO TEAM'S ROOTS

PURPLE POSSIBILITIES » Team's new jerseys keep the focus on Utah and its unique landscape — the mountains — and the color purple.

» STORY and ANDY LARSEN, C1

LIQUOR WITH A BIT OF HISTORY

NEW STORE » State liquor outlet will feature some artifacts uncovered during its construction.

» THE MIX, D1

RAISING A STINK OVER FLOODING

FARMINGTON » Several homeowners with damaged basements are stuck waiting amid finger-pointing.

» STORY, A10

ISSUE'S PAPER DATE CT
WEST VALLEY CITY UT 84120-7904