DOCKET NO. 99-035-10
ORDER GRANTING RECONSIDERATION

-----

ISSUED: July 3, 2000

By The Commission:

The Commission issued the final Report and Order in this matter May 24, 2000. On June 13, 2000, PacifiCorp and the Committee of Consumer Services both filed Petitions for Reconsideration. PacifiCorp requested that we reconsider our decisions for the following issues: Computer Software Write-Down; Business Postage; Normalization of Firm Retail Peak Loads; Account 903 Allocations Factors; Net Power Adjustments; and, Format of the Production Dispatch Model. The Committee asked that we reconsider: Supplemental Executive Retirement Plan (SERP); Noell Kempf Climate Action Project; Re-Engineering Costs; Systems Applications and Products Software (SAP); and, Glenrock Closure Reclamation Costs. The Commission also received two letters protesting the line extension policy established in the final Report and Order.

Having read the Petitions for Reconsideration and letters of protest, the Commission will reconsider the Business Postage, Noell Kempf Climate Action, Format of the Production Dispatch Model, and line extension policy issues. All other requests of the parties are hereby denied.

DATED at Salt Lake City, Utah, this 3rd day of July, 2000.
