Subject: Questar increase.

Hello: Well it seems to me that the $30 increase is going to happen according to the news media. It's just very sad that no negotiations went on to try to lower this amount. If negotiations did go on, I wasn't informed of it through the media. Families will just have to give up something to pay for this increase. Just like they have to do with everything else. The rich get richer the poor get poorer and the middle class, well, they're vanishing. No human being really, really cares. I would appreciate it very much if you don't respond to this email. Thank you.
