I would like to know the process for protesting the idiotic increase of CNG rates. With the EPA mandate to clean up our air, surely those making the decision are either being blackmailed, payed off, or simply stupid. The former moron mayor of Salt Lake has called the decision stupid. Now that's incredible! When I find someone too incompetent to deal with, I ask to speak with their manager. Since I find the decision so obviously flawed, speaking with them would be a waist of my time, so I would like to speak with their manager. Surely they don't wield unchecked power to implement such a bad ruling. Could you please give me the contact information for whoever supervises these crooks.

Thanks,
Scott G
