Re: *Notice Regarding Questar Gas Company Name
Docket No. 16-057-01*

Dear Commissioners:

Questar Gas Company (“Questar Gas” or “Company”) respectfully submits this notice that it does not have current plans to change its name.

In Paragraph 17 of the Settlement Stipulation in Docket No. 16-057-01 (“Settlement Stipulation”), the Parties agreed that:

Dominion Questar Gas will not seek any changes to existing filed rates, rules, regulations, and classifications under Questar Gas’ Utah Natural Gas Tariff No. 400 (“Tariff”) because of the Merger, before its next general rate case, except to revise the Tariff to change the name of the operating entity. The Company will file for a name change within 21 days of the Effective Time.

The Utah Public Service Commission (“Commission”) approved the Settlement Stipulation in a bench ruling on August 22, 2016, and in an Order Memorializing Bench Ruling Approving Settlement Stipulation issued on September 14, 2016.

Though the Effective Time occurred on September 16, 2016, Questar Gas does not intend to change its name at this time. Should Questar Gas desire to change its name in the future, it will notify the Commission and take any necessary steps to modify its Tariff at that time.

Sincerely,

Colleen Larkin Bell
Vice President and General Manager
