All,

The Company responds as follows:

- 1) The Company believes that the parties have discussed (but not reached agreement upon) a new schedule. We are not aware of a stipulation, but are confident that the parties can reach resolution in a scheduling conference.
- 2) The Company supports an expedited scheduling conference on November 29th, as stated.
- 3) The Company would support holding a scheduling conference next week, provided that the Commission vacate the existing Scheduling Order and relieve the Company of a requirement to file testimony on the 30th.

I'm happy to further discuss if you feel it necessary.
