BEFORE THE PUBLIC SERVICE COMMISSION OF UTAH

Pass-Through Application of Dominion	(DOCKET NO. 17-057-20
Energy Utah for an Adjustment in Rates and	(
Charges for Natural Gas Service in Utah	(Comments of the (Office of Consumer Services

On February 15, 2018, the Commission issued a Notice and Request for Comments concerning the possible rescheduling of the hearing date in this docket. In response to that Notice and Request, the Office of Consumer Services (“Office”) provides the following:

The Office is currently working with a limited staff to accomplish its legislative imperatives and responsibilities. Some accommodation in not having overlapping hearings for significant matters pending before the Commission is greatly appreciated.

Having reviewed other pending matters scheduled for hearing in the month of June 2018, the availability of the Office’s staff and the attorneys and experts who are working with the Office on pending matters that are scheduled for hearing, the Office indicates that it could work with any rescheduled hearing dates in June 2018 for the above referenced docket, except as follows:

- June 18 and 19 will not work for the Office.
- The Office would also hope to avoid the dates of June 14, 15, and 20.

We appreciate the Commission's willingness in being sensitive to the parties' scheduling concerns in this matter.

Respectfully submitted, this 23rd day of February 2018.
