Thanks

I would appreciate it if you could expedite this matter.

Drywall has begun and my expense will be greater the longer this takes.

Best Regards

Hello Mr. Parsons,

Usually it takes about 30 to 60 days for the Public Service Commission to take the next set of actions in the docket.

Thank you and have a great day.

To whom this concerns

I submitted my response to Dominion response.

Could you give me an idea as to when this will be looked at? We are currently in drywall phase. And I will need to run the gas lines before everything's covered up.

Thank You
