

About the Registries

Climate Action Reserve	American Carbon Registry
-Originally established in 2001 as the California Climate Action Registry to develop GHG accounting protocols, provide inventory reporting registry services, and encourage and reward early actions to measure and reduce GHG emissions, as directed by California state legislation. -Began voluntary carbon offset registry in 2006 -22 adopted protocols -Projects in 47 states and Mexico -Landfill protocol methodology available on the following site: https://www.climateactionreserve.org/how/protocols/us-landfill/	-The American Carbon Registry (ACR) was founded in 1996 as the first private voluntary greenhouse gas registry in the world... ACR works to create confidence in the environmental and scientific integrity of carbon offsets in order to accelerate transformational emission reduction actions. -Serves regulated California market and voluntary markets. -Registers numerous types of carbon offset programs from around the globe under adopted Standards and Methodologies. -Improved Forest Management methodology available here: https://americancarbonregistry.org/carbon-accounting/standards-methodologies/improved-forest-management-ifm-methodology-for-non-federal-u-s-forestlands

See climateactionreserve.org and americancarbonregistry.org.