COMMUNICATION

7523001

Regarding the new area code overlay, this stinks! I believe someone testified before the Commission that having a lot of area code changes would be a "pain in the butt". Let me tell the Commission that having to dial 11 digits (not ten like all the publicity wants you to believe), is a BIGGER pain in the butt! I am very disappointed in the Commission for making this decision. Having a new area code is inevitable; but making it an overlay is going to be a major pain!
