RE: Cordia Communications Corp.
Docket No. 06-2470-01

Docket No. 11-999-03

Dear Secretary:

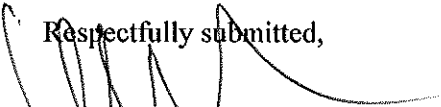

On May 1, 2011, Cordia Communications Corp. ("Cordia") filed under Chapter 11 of the United States Bankruptcy Code in the Middle District of Florida, Case Number 6:11-bk-06493. On July 14, 2011, the bankruptcy court approved an Asset Purchase Agreement between Birch Communications Inc. ("Birch") and Cordia that provides for the sale of certain assets and customers of Cordia located in twenty-one (21) of the twenty-seven (27) jurisdictions where Cordia is licensed to operate as a wireline telecommunications service provider. The Asset Purchase Agreement does not include customers in six (6) jurisdictions including the State of Utah. The migration of the included jurisdictions will commence on or about October 13, 2011.

Cordia is using its best efforts to find a certificated telecommunications service provider to purchase its customer base located in the six (6) excluded jurisdictions which includes customers in Utah. In the event that Cordia is unsuccessful in finding a purchaser Cordia will cease providing services to customers in Utah on or about October 13, 2011.

As of the date of this correspondence Cordia has three hundred and twelve (312) residential customers in the State of Utah who will be affected by the proposed sale of lines or abandonment of service. Cordia shall provide a minimum thirty (30) day notice, with a copy to your office, to all affected subscribers advising that either (1) a new provider will take over as their telecommunications service (2) the proposed date that Cordia will cease providing services in Utah.

If you have any questions concerning this matter, please contact the undersigned.

Respectfully submitted,

Maria A. Abbagnaro
General Counsel
