Re: *Nexus Communications, Inc. d/b/a ReachOut Wireless –Docket No. 15-999-04
Annual Lifeline Eligible Telecommunications Carriers' Certification Form 555*

Dear Mr. Widerburg:

Enclosed for filing are two versions of Nexus Communications, Inc.'s ("Nexus") annual FCC Form 555 filing – one "Confidential – Subject to Utah Public Service Commission Rule 746-100-16" FCC Form 555 and one "Non-Confidential – Redacted Version" FCC Form 555, on yellow paper with the confidential material shaded. One copy of each is being mailed to the Commission via UPS overnight.

Nexus requests such pages be treated as confidential pursuant to Public Service Commission of Utah Rule 746-100-16. Nexus has reviewed Rule 746-100-16 with respect to the review and use of confidential information and agrees to comply with the terms and conditions of the rule. The basis for confidential treatment is that the subscriber and recertification numbers in the FCC Form 555 constitute competitively sensitive information and trade secrets of Nexus, and that public disclosure of Nexus' FCC Form 555 data for Utah and other states could harm Nexus' business with respect to its competitors, by providing competitors with valuable information on Nexus' marketing and enrollment efforts. Accordingly, Nexus has made efforts to ensure the confidentiality of all of FCC Form 555 data concerning its wireless operations. The information in the enclosed FCC Form 555 was also filed confidentially with the FCC.
