Miscellaneous Correspondence and Reports
Regarding Gas Utility Services; 2018

DOCKET NO. 18-999-02

NOTICE

ISSUED: February 20, 2019

On November 20, 2018, Coy D. Porter, Utah State Fire Marshal (“USFM”), submitted a letter to the Public Service Commission of Utah (“PSC”), requesting the PSC take steps to assign responsibility to natural gas utilities for removing pre-existing, customer-owned gas tanks in new service areas (“Request”). On November 21, 2018, the PSC issued an Action Request to the Division of Public Utilities (“DPU”), asking the DPU to provide its analysis and opinion as to whether the PSC has jurisdiction over the Request’s subject matter.

On January 15, 2019, the DPU filed a memorandum, recommending the PSC take no action on the Request. On February 19, 2019, the USFM submitted a letter stating its intention to withdraw the Request.

In light of USFM’s withdrawal and the DPU’s recommendation, the PSC considers the DPU’s responsibility under the Action Request to be completed, and acknowledges USFM’s withdrawal.

DATED at Salt Lake City, Utah, February 20, 2019.

PSC Secretary
