Mr. Monson.

Thanks to all who have worked on this. I've reviewed the proposed dates and don't see any conflicts. Therefore, assuming that everyone is on board, I'll go ahead and issue a scheduling order accordingly.

Judge Goodwill,

The parties have worked through the discovery on the Union cost study that was the subject of a motion to compel and are now ready to proceed with scheduling the balance of the matter. The following proposed schedule has been reviewed and approved by all parties:

March 5, 2007 Qwest files surrebuttal testimony on Union Cost Study

March 16, 2007 Division of Public Utilities files testimony if desired

April 2, 2007 Qwest and Union file testimony responsive to Division testimony, if any

April 17, 2007 Division files Joint Issues Matrix if needed (Note: This may be unnecessary because it appears that there will only be one issue in dispute. The parties will let you know if an agreement is reached on the other issues)

April 24, 2007 Hearing commencing at 9:30 am. (Note: Parties believe the hearing will likely take less than one full day, but you may wish to reserve April 25, 2007 just in case the hearing is not concluded within one day)

May 25, 2007 Parties file post-hearing briefs

We assume that if this schedule will work for you that you will issue an eighth scheduling order. If it doesn't work, we would be happy to have a scheduling conference to work through any problems.

Thank you,

Greg Monson
