Mr. Smith,

I'm in CA at NARUC today and will be back in the office tomorrow.

Given that Eschelon has no objection to the extension, we'll go ahead and extend the brief filing deadline to 20 November as you've requested. No reason for you to file a motion or for the Commission to issue an order; we'll just operate off of this email.

Please let me know if you have any questions about this.

Dear Judge Goodwill:

The parties' post-hearing briefs in this matter are due on November 16. Because of scheduling conflicts that have arisen for Qwest's counsel, Qwest would like to request that the time for the parties to file their briefs be extended to November 20. Eschelon has stated that it has no objection to this request.

Therefore, Qwest requests your approval of an extension of the filing date to November 20, 2007.

If you would like Qwest to file a formal motion for extension, we can certainly do so.

Ted Smith
