In the Matter of the Formal Complaint of A-Allstate Bonding Company against Eschelon Telecom Inc. / Integra Telecom))))))	DOCKET NO. 08-2263-01 ORDER APPROVING SETTLEMENT AND CLOSING DOCKET
---	----------------------------	--

ISSUED: August 26, 2008

By The Commission

Pursuant to notice, this matter was heard August 13, 2008. Complainant A-Allstate Bonding Company appeared through its owner, D. Todd Harris, Eschelon Telecom/Intergra Telecom (Eschelon) appeared by telephone through Cathy Murray, with Joseph Koltis, the Division of Public Utilities (Division) appeared through Utah Assistant Attorney General Patricia Schmid, with Paul Hicken of the Division.

After initial presentation by Mr. Harris and Mr. Hicken, discussion was had between the parties relating to terms offered by Eschelon in an effort to resolve the dispute. Mr. Harris stated that of the three remaining telephone lines, service was being changed to Qwest and he believed they were being transferred that morning. The parties indicated they did not anticipate any difficulties with the change in service carriers; if any problem did occur, they would be resolved expeditiously. Eschelon offered to credit complainant's account $65 for each of the three telephone lines that remained at issue between the parties. Eschelon stated it would remit any balance on the account to Mr. Harris once the $195 credit was made to the account. Mr. Harris accepted the terms offered by Eschelon.

Based upon the parties' resolution through settlement accepted at the August 13, 2008, hearing, the Commission approves the settlement made and will close this docket. No
