

INTTEC, INC. Management Team

MANGERIAL CAPABILTY

Brian R Worthen is President. Mr. Worthen received a small business degree in 1995 from the University of Wyoming and promptly entered the business market. In 1996, worked with corporate ownership to market and sell a transportation company to a concern who subsequently took the transportation company public in that same year as Coach USA, Inc. Worthen continued working for Coach, supervising 300 employees in five Western States. Worthen oversaw roll-up of other transportation concerns into his operations.

In 2001, Worthen purchased into Visionary Communications, the largest Internet Service Provider in Wyoming. A prompt restructuring of the company allowed Visionary and InTTec to divest of its voice services offered since 1989 and start using the CLEC's ability to offer Data services from Qwest Central Offices. The company currently serves customers from six collocations around the state of Wyoming.

Christie Dickinson is the Comptroller. Ms. Dickinson graduated in 1976 from NCB in Rapid City SD. Following school, Dickinson worked at Copper Mountain Resort as Controller until 1982, when she left to work for PAB Widener until 1984. Dickinson gained additional experience in Wyoming, working as Controller for Power River Transportation and then P&H MinePro, before coming to work for Visionary in 2002. Dickinson is a CPA.

TECHNICAL CAPABILITY

Jeremy Malli is the CTO. Mr. Malli attended the South Dakota School of Mines before leaving college to start Visionary in 1994. Malli was instrumental in he decisions to bring InTTec on board in 1999, and also with the merger of WaveCom and CoffeyNet in that same year. Malli built a network that spanned more than 20 communities, and developed the business to enable it to provide the first broadband services in more than ten Wyoming communities. Malli holds Cisco certification and is fluent in Cisco, Juniper and Redback technologies, and also DSL and Ethernet First-Mile technologies.
