Ms. Hansen,

I cannot advise you as to the strength of your case. Nor can I communicate with you unless Frontier's attorney is included. If you e-mail me, you must copy Frontier as well.

Mr. Lee and Mr. Thomson,

Please be advised that I received the communication below from Ms. Hansen today, February 22, 2016. I will comply with Utah Administrative Code R746-100-13 in dealing with the ex parte communication.

Thank you,
Jennie T. Jonsson

Hi Ms. Jonsson,

It seems that my response was done incorrectly. I apologize, as via email is the only way that I knew to do it. I had been wondering why Frontier was not responding to my response and I was going to call you today. I have not hired an attorney. Has this jeopardized my case in any way? I do appreciate your assistance with this matter. Since my response on the 10th, I have not heard or seen from anyone from Frontier. I just have a mess in my landscape. Again, thank you very much for your help. Sincerely, Wyndee Hansen 435 686-9988

Mr. Thomson and Mr. Lee,

The attached is Ms. Hansen's response and objection to Frontier's motion for an indefinite stay of her complaint. Ms. Hansen e-mailed her response to the Public Service Commission of Utah on the evening of February 10, 2016, and it was docketed the next day. It does not appear that Ms. Hansen served her response and objection on Frontier. Where Ms. Hansen is proceeding pro se, and where this complaint docket is being handled on an informal basis, I am going to assist Ms. Hansen in serving her response as required under the Commission's administrative rules. I am also waiving the administrative rule that requires a paper copy of any pleading to be served and filed. (I note that the briefing of Frontier's motion likely does not fall under this rule, as we are not dealing with a pleading; however, to the extent the rule might be considered applicable, it is waived.) The docket will reflect today, February 22, 2016, as the service date of Ms. Hansen's objection. Under my February 11, 2016 scheduling order, Frontier's deadline to file a final reply is February 29, 2016. An electronic filing will be accepted as complete.

Thank you,
