)	Default and Dismissal.

The Office of Consumer Services (“Office”) hereby provides its Reply to Boomerang’s Response filed in the above referenced proceeding and withdraws its Request for an Order of Default and Dismissal.

1. On July 20, 2107, the Office filed its Request for an Order of Default and Dismissal in the above referenced proceeding.
2. On July 20, 2017, the Utah Public Service Commission (“Commission”) issued a scheduling order providing the opportunity for parties to file a Response to the filed Request and for the Office to provide a Reply to any Response.
3. On August 3, 2017, Boomerang, through newly engaged local counsel, filed its Response to the Office’s Request for an Order of Default and Dismissal. Within Boomerang’s Response, the applicant provided explanations concerning earlier procedural delays and reaffirmed its desire and commitment to receive an ETC designation within the State of Utah. Boomerang also expressed an interest in completing the execution of a proposed Stipulation and Settlement Agreement that would resolve issues in this proceeding and enable the Commission to provide an order designating Boomerang as an ETC provider of services for the State of Utah.

4. The Office is satisfied with the explanations provided in Boomerang's Response. The Office is working with Boomerang to finalize a Stipulation and Settlement Agreement which should be filed with the Commission within the next few days.

FOR THE FOREGOING REASONS, the Office hereby withdraws its Request for an Order of Default and Dismissal.

Respectfully submitted, this 16th day of August 2017.

Steven W. Snarr
Attorney for the Office of Consumer Services

CERTIFICATE OF SERVICE

I hereby certify that I have served a copy of the foregoing Reply to Boomerang's Response to the Office's Request for Order of Default and Dismissal upon all those designated on the Commission's service list in the above referenced proceeding.

Dated this 15th day of August 2017
