This filing adds language pursuant to 47 C.F.R § 9.16(b)(3), pertaining to Ray Baum's Act. Specifically, these revisions document the requirements that multiline telephone systems and fixed and non-fixed voice services must be capable of conveying the dispatchable location of a 911 caller to a public safety answering point (PSAP). In recognition of customer obligations related to Ray Baum's Act, these revisions include indemnification provisions to which customers connecting MLTS to Company facilities and/or providing fixed or non-fixed services must adhere. Business customers have been notified of these changes.

Respectfully submitted,
