This matter was scheduled to be heard before the Public Service Commission's Administrative Law Judge August 10, 2005. On August 9, 2005, Concerned Citizens of Draper, D.J. Investments, LLC, ("Intervenors") and WaterPro, Inc. ("WaterPro") agreed to a continuance of the hearing to allow the parties to meet and settle disputed issues.

After meeting together, the undersigned parties agree and stipulate as follows:

1. WaterPro is not a political subdivision of the state.
2. The Public Service Commission's issuance of a certificate of public convenience and necessity to WaterPro does not make WaterPro a political subdivision of the state or confer any such status upon them nor does it affect, in any way, the operation of Utah Code Annotated §10-7-4 and the rights of a municipality under that section.

- Intervenors do not oppose WaterPro's application for a certificate of public convenience and necessity and will not oppose the application at hearing in this proceeding.
