Dear Dave:

On May 30, 1986 you signed a promisory note for $1250.00 which you assessed each water user for capital improvements for costs for the new well. This note is due and payable on May 30, 2001 together with interest at the rate of 7% and compounded annually. The total amount due on this note including interest is $3,448.79. We are now calling this note due and payable on the due date which is May 30, 2001. Please make check payable to Lynn A Darley and Mable J Darley.

To comply with IRS ruling you will need to provide us with a 1099 Form no latter than January 31, 2002 for tax filing year of 2001..

Please find enclosed a copy of your written agreement together with the note.

Sincerely

Lynn A Darley
